

The Green Mountain Cultural Center and Valley Arts VT are pleased to announce that the Photo Show, presented for nearly 30 years by the GMCC, has found a new home with Valley Arts. The show achieved wide recognition under GMCC's leadership, and both organizations are excited about the opportunities for the continued growth and visibility Valley Arts will offer as the producer of the event.

With the transition, the venue for the Photo Show will change from the Round Barn in Waitsfield to the Galleries in the Big Red Barn at Lareau Farm. The dates of the exhibition will also change—the show will be one of Valley Arts' featured events during its new Barns and Bridges Festival scheduled for September. The show will open on Friday, September 14, and continue through fall foliage, ending October 7. The galleries will be open Thursday and Friday 4:00pm to 9:00pm; Saturday and Sunday 12:00pm to 9:00pm.

The exhibition is open to both professional and amateur photographers working in black and white or color, film or digital manipulation. For information contact Valley Arts at info@valleyartsvt.com.
